FAO No.307 of 2005.

26.10.2007 Present:Mr.Neeraj Gupta, counsel for the appellant.
Ms.Neelam Bansal, vice counsel for the respondent.

This appeal arises out of a judgment and decree dated 15th June, 2005 passed by the Presiding Officer, Fast Track Court, Mandi in Hindu Marriage Petition No.2/2001, 7/2004. The appellant-husband had filed a petition for dissolution of marriage on various grounds. This petition was rejected and the present appeal was filed.

It appears that thereafter the parties came to the conclusion that since the marriage has irretrievably broken down they should approach the Court jointly for dissolution of marriage. According a petition under Section 13-B being HMP No.26 of 2007was filed before the learned District Judge, Mandi which petition has been allowed on 18th June, 2007. A copy of the judgment has been placed on record. Since the marriage between the parties stands dissolved by a decree of divorce by mutual consent granted by the District Judge, Mandi, this appeal has become infructuous and is dismissed accordingly.

CMP No.1169 of 2005:

This application is for grant of permanent alimony. From the perusal of the judgment dated 18.6.2007 reference to which has been made above it is clear that permanent alimony has been paid to the wife in the said proceedings, hence this application does not survive and is dismissed accordingly.
